FAQ Continued

Memorial Park Conservancy is asking the public to be aware of the following closure impacts:

Memorial Park, including Seymour Lieberman Trail and Clay Family Eastern Glades, will remain open to the public during the tournament, however, access to the Park will be limited. Onsite parking, sports and field rentals will not be available.

The Cullen Running Trails Center will continue to operate during its regular business hours on these days.

WHAT'S IMPACTED?

All Memorial Parking lots will be closed to the public from March 27-30. If visiting the Park on these days, visitors should walk, bike, ride share or take METRO.

*Please note, the parking lots at Memorial Park Golf Course, Vale-Asche Playground, Sports Complex (East & West) and Tennis Center will also be closed March 23-26.

The parking lots at the Fitness Center, Clay Family Eastern Glades, Picnic Loop and Running Complex will remain open during those days.

Street Closures from March 27-30:

- East and West Memorial Loop Drive
- Westcott entrance at Memorial Loop Drive
- Arnot Street from East Memorial Loop Drive to Crestwood Drive

NO park-user or tournament parking allowed in the following neighborhoods:

- Camp Logan
- Crestwood
- Glen Cove

Parking restrictions will be strictly enforced.

HOW DO I GET TO THE PARK?

Park users are encouraged to utilize rideshare services or the Houston Metro bus to access the Park.

Designated rideshare drop-off locations will be established for the tournament, and Metro will maintain its usual bus routes.

The Metro Bus Line #20 travels east and west along Memorial Drive, with several stops within the Park. Visit the Metro website for more information.

Visitors and runners at Memorial Park are encouraged to seize the chance to explore one of the Houston Parks and Recreation Department's 381 additional parks and 196 miles of trails.

For more information on these parks and trails, visit the Houston Parks and Recreation Department webpage.
